A decade inside the operations of an internationally touring entertainment brand. Since 2015 I have worked the full creator commerce loop from the artist's side: live events, merchandise, fan club payments and worldwide fulfillment, promoter relations across the country, and official-channel communications to an audience of 92K+ followers. I pair that operational depth with a working product design and AI prototyping practice.

CORE SKILLS

Artist Operations	Live-event operations, tour coordination, promoter relations, stakeholder communication, merchandise operations, on-site sales, talent support
Fan Commerce	E-commerce operations, payment processing, order management, international fulfillment, customer service, DTC operations, membership programs
Audience and Social	Social media management, official-channel publishing, promotional announcements, community management, fan engagement, brand voice, public relations
Design and AI	Product design, UX/UI, functional prototyping, React, Next.js, TypeScript, Figma, Claude Code, AI-assisted workflows

EXPERIENCE

Artist Operations, Fan Engagement, and Commerce 2015 to Present
Shawn Klush, internationally touring entertainer with a 92K+ follower Facebook audience

- + Support artist operations across live events, merchandise, fan commerce, social media, promotions, and promoter relations for an established touring entertainment brand, a working history of 10+ years inside one creator business.
- + Maintain direct relationships with promoters and event contacts across the United States, coordinating communication before and around live engagements.
- + Coordinate communication among the artist, band members, staff, and promoters surrounding performances and touring activity nationwide.
- + Run on-site merchandise sales at live engagements across the country: inventory setup, direct fan-facing selling, cash and payment handling, and the customer experience at the table.
- + One of 2 people responsible for Shawn Klush Fan Club commerce end to end: payment processing, order management, customer communication, and merchandise fulfillment to fans worldwide.
- + Assist in managing official social media platforms and public announcements from the artist's official page, publishing promotions and audience communications to 92K+ Facebook followers.
- + Designed an online merchandise shop for the brand, currently unreleased, extending on-site and fan club sales into direct-to-consumer e-commerce.

Independent Product Designer 2025 to Present
Independent product design and design engineering practice, New York, NY

- + Design and build working product prototypes in React, Next.js, and TypeScript: 10 live prototypes and shipped tools, 2 published open-source Claude Code plugins, and in-depth case studies.
- + Highlights include Chellbook, a 30-screen food-safety product concept for a prospective client, and Wildcard, a published AI ideation plugin validated in a preregistered blind study, novelty up +0.72 at p=0.037.

Actor and Voiceover Artist 2022 to Present
Film, television, and commercial

- + Credits include Daredevil: Born Again (Marvel, Disney+, co-star, episode 9, April 2025), ABC 20/20 (voiceover), and New York Blood Center (commercial lead). Working experience on the talent side of professional productions.
